D

Suzanne takes you down to her place near the river

Emi

You can hear the boats go by, you can spend the night forever

D

And you know that she's half-crazy but that's why you want to be there

F#mi

G

And she feeds you tea and oranges that come all the way from China

D

Emi

And just when you mean to tell her that you have no love to give her

D

Then he gets you on her wavelength

Emi

D

D

And she lets the river answer that you've always been her lover

R:

F#mi

G

And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind And you know that she will trust you For you've touched her perfect body with your mind

D

Emi

D

D

And Jesus was a sailor when he walked upon the water

Emi

And he spent a long time watching from his lonely wooden tower

D

And when he knew for certain only drowning men could see him

F#mi

G

He said all men will be sailors then until the sea shall free them

D

Emi

But he himself was broken, long before the sky would open

D

Emi

D

D

Forsaken, almost human, he sank beneath your wisdom like a stone

R:

F#mi

G

And you want to travel with him, and you want to travel blind And you

D

Emi

D

D

think you maybe you'll trust him For he's touched your perfect body with her mind

D

Now, Suzanne takes your hand and she leads you to the river

Emi

She's wearing rags and feathers from Salvation Army counters

D

And the sun pours down like honey on our lady of the harbor

F#mi

G

And she shows you where to look among the garbage and the flowers

D

Emi

There are heroes in the seaweed, there are children in the morning

D

Emi

They are leaning out for love and they will lean that way forever

D

While Suzanne holds her mirror

R:

F#mi

G

And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind

And you

D

Emi
