G
Suzanne takes you down to her place near the river
Ami
You can hear the boats go by, you can spend the night forever
G
And you know that she's half-crazy but that's why you want to be there
Hmi C
And she feeds you tea and oranges that come all the way from China
G Ami
And just when you mean to tell her that you have no love to give her
G
Then he gets you on her wavelength
Ami G G
And she lets the river answer that you've always been her lover
R:
Hmi C
And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind And you
G Ami G
know that she will trust you For you've touched her perfect body with your mind
G
And Jesus was a sailor when he walked upon the water
Ami
And he spent a long time watching from his lonely wooden tower
G
And when he knew for certain only drowning men could see him
Hmi C
He said all men will be sailors then until the sea shall free them
G Ami
But he himself was broken, long before the sky would open
G Ami G G
Foresaken, almost human, he sank beneath your wisdom like a stone
R:
Hmi C
And you want to travel with him, and you want to travel blind And you
G Ami G G
think you maybe you'll trust him For he's touched your perfect body with her mind
G
Now, Suzanne takes your hand and she leads you to the river
Ami
She's wearing rags and feathers from Salvation Army counters
G
And the sun pours down like honey on our lady of the harbor
Hmi C
And she shows you where to look among the garbage and the flowers
G Ami
There are heroes in the seaweed, there are children in the morning
G Ami
They are leaning out for love and they will lean that way forever
G
While Suzanne holds her mirror
R:
Hmi C
And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind And you
G Ami G G
know that you can trust her For she's touched your perfect body with her mind
